RONALD WEBSTER

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

RONALD WEBSTER,

Defendant.

CASE NO. 4:16-CR-00240-JST

STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER TO CONTINUE SENTENCING

On July 8, 2016, the Defendant entered his plea of guilty pursuant to a plea agreement with the Government. This matter is currently scheduled for sentencing on April 21, 2017. The parties have conferred and the Government agrees that there is good cause to continue the sentencing hearing to July 7, 2017.

As the Court has been previously informed, the Defendant has made substantial payments to the victim in this matter, CISCO Systems. Probation and the Government have been provided with a spreadsheet showing that the total cash payments to CISCO to date total $974,493.60. In addition, the Defendant deeded a home to Cisco with an expected equity. The settlement agreement with CISCO executed by the Defendant calls for total payment of $2,300,000.

The purpose of this continuance is to allow the Defendant to conclude some business that is expected to result in further substantial payments to CISCO prior to sentencing. The Defendant and the Government agree that it is in the best interest of the both the Defendant and the victim, CISCO, to have as much paid toward the restitution as possible prior to sentencing.
